BENTON HARBOR—The leader of the Benton Harbor Salvation Army will be among the people on the forefront of American relief efforts in Haiti.

"We've got quite a large presence in Haiti — schools, hospitals, children's homes and that stuff," said Maj. Mike McKee. "But this emergency is well beyond the capacity of our people on the ground there."

McKee was en route Friday to the Salvation Army's headquarters in Alexandria, Va., to help coordinate the agency's national response to
